Was the Walking Match at Smith's Hall Lest Might.

The Contest an Inglorious Pizzie From Beginning to Rod.

Radalia has had a number of pedestrian matches in the past six weeks, but the one that took place at Smith's Hall last night capped the climax, and the Basoo hopes mism is buried so deep that it will never be resurrected. The match, as an nonneed by the referee, Capt. Bridges, was for the benefit of M'lle Armaindo. eight o'clock, the time for business, a small audience was present-hardly one-fourth the number of previous matches.

A FEW LADIES occupied the front seats, and shortly after 8 o'clock Capt Bridges announced that the first thing on the programme was a fivemile go-es-you-please match between Lon Hughey and Ed Band. The match was won by Hughey, he beating Rand some evening. Next came a five-mile beel-andtoe walk between M'ile Louise and Mr Dawson, the female winning by a fraction of a second in 541 minutes. A GRAND PARCE.

Then came a five-mile heel-and-toe conto be heel-and-toe. Both young women of the windows so they could raise it from Garrison House, he commenced going are pretty well known.
